

EP013 Homework

How Much Is It?

LEVEL	A1 Beginner
GOAL	Ask the price, react to a price, and make a simple buying decision.

Four core phrases

Phrase	Meaning and example
How much is it?	Ask the price of something. Example: How much is this camera pin?
It's five dollars.	Say that the price is five dollars. Example: The small pin? It's five dollars.
I'll take it.	Say that you want to buy it. Example: I like the small pin. I'll take it.
That's too expensive.	Say that the price is too high. Example: Twelve dollars? That's too expensive.

Mini dialogue

Daniel:	Five dollars for this small camera pin?
Emma:	That's not bad.
Daniel:	The larger one is twelve dollars.
Emma:	That's too expensive. The small one is better.
Daniel:	I agree. I'll take it.
Emma:	A tiny camera for the person carrying a real camera.
Daniel:	Exactly.
Emma:	Okay, shopping finished. I'm hungry.

Practice activities

Match the answers. Complete B from the lesson. Write your own lines in C.

A. Match the question and answer

1. How much is the small pin? a) The small camera pin.
2. How much is the larger pin? b) Twelve dollars.
3. Which pin does Daniel buy? c) Emma.
4. Who is hungry after shopping? d) Five dollars.

B. Complete the expressions

1. How _____ is it?
2. The small pin is _____ dollars.
3. I'll _____ it.
4. That's _____ expensive.
5. That's not _____.

C. Build your conversation

Ask the price: _____

Say the small pin's price: _____

React to the higher price: _____

Choose the small pin: _____

Say thank you: _____

Speaking box

Read the mini dialogue as Daniel and Emma. Compare the five-dollar and twelve-dollar pins and say which one you want. Practise slowly, then naturally. Switch roles.

Answer key and review

- A: 1 d; 2 b; 3 a; 4 c.
- B: 1 much; 2 five; 3 take; 4 too; 5 bad.
- C: Personal answers. Example: How much is it? / It's five dollars. / That's too expensive. / I'll take the small one. / Thank you.

Shadowing checklist

- I listened before I repeated.
- I copied the speaker's rhythm.
- I spoke in short thought groups.
- I recorded myself once.
- I repeated one difficult sentence three times.

My best sentence today

Three-word spelling practice

Look at each word. Cover it. Spell it aloud, then write it from memory.

1. PRICE Write: _____
2. FIVE Write: _____
3. MONEY Write: _____

Bonus: Use one of the three words in a sentence.

Next lesson

EP014 - What Would You Like to Eat?

Small steps. Clear English. Real conversations.